Room 135
Russell Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Mr. Perle:

We are delighted that you can speak to our Seminar on Intelligence Analysis. To reconfirm, we have scheduled your talk for Friday, February 17, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. We have titled it "Soviet Military Doctrine." We hope that you can present prepared remarks for an hour to an hour and a half. After a short break, the remaining time will be devoted to a question and answer session.

For your background information, the course is designed to improve the capabilities of our analysts by exposing them to new ideas and sources of information. All of the people in the class work on one or more aspects of the Soviet military problem. The course is keyed to presenting alternative explanations for the current Soviet military buildup. This subject was chosen because all the students are familiar with the problem plus the fact that there is a plethora of both classified and unclassified sources of information regarding it. We hope, therefore, that you can approach Soviet Military Doctrine as it bears on the Soviet arms buildup plus mentioning the sources of information that you use. The class will have fourteen students at the GS-12 to GS-15 level.

The course will be held in our Chamber of Commerce Building, Room 1001, 4600 North Fairfax Drive, Arlington, Virginia.

The building is near the intersection of North Fairfax Drive and Glebe Road. If you have any questions or comments, you can reach me or my associate, [redacted]
